MORE OPIUM.

Another Fight and Capture at Oceanic Wharf.

Another opium smuggler was captured early last evening by the customs officers at Oceanic wharf.

B. Kianahi, the strongest watchman on the force, was at the gate when a big fellow belonging to the quartermaster's department on the Australia started to pass out. The officer stopped the sailor and began searching him, when the suspect broke to run.

Kianahi grabbed the man by the coat and dragged him back. The sailor struck the officer a hard blow and then they locked in a wrestle. The other guards, who were in the office at the time the fight began, hearing the row, rushed out and soon had the man subdued. Four tins of opium were found on him, two up each coat sleeve. The smuggler was brought up town and lodged in the station house.

Pardon Session.

Only two pardons were granted by the Council of State at the session yesterday. Sam Johnson, a Chinese opium smuggler at Waikuku, was the first to receive clemency. He gets a present of six months and will return to his home in San Francisco, where he says he has a huile wife and several children.

A Japanese, quite ill, can leave Oahu mitted to life imprisonment and a few years ago secured a change to twenty.
